'We acquire a piece of jewelry because it awakens a particular vibration in ourselves, because suddenly it is this one and not another.

And we will wear it like a protective talisman, like a beneficial companion who symbolically reveals a part of our own intimacy to the world.

Over time, I wanted to explore other territories, particularly that of textiles and objects. Sporadically, I now also offer clothing and objects loaded with symbols. It is my bohemian and spiritual universe that I invite you to discover today through the following pages.

Thank you in advance for not using our photos, thank you for always quoting and tagging us when you talk about our jewelry.

Good reading,

Caroline'
